Swadeshi Jagaran Manch appeals public to boycott Bangladeshi products

SE Report
GANGTOK, December 6: Swadeshi Jagaran Manch (Uttar Bengal & Sikkim) Prant Sanyojak Shrish Khare, Sah Sanyojak Amal Dey and Prachar Pramukh Shubhabrata Dutta have urged the public to boycott all Bangladeshi products and services. "Our neighbouring country Bangladesh is now in turmoil. Every now and then there is news of incidents in which humanity is being insulted. The elected head of that country has been expelled, the power has been transferred to the hands of blind India haters, common people have been severely affected and exiled and India as a neighbouring country has to suffer the consequences," said the Swadeshi Jagaran Manch functionaries. "Swadeshi Jagaran Manch, a patriotic organization always thinks about our country and has been calling on the people to boycott all kinds of foreign products as a matter of principle and to accept only indigenous products and services. In this particular situation, while even our national flag has been disrespected in the country which got freedom with the help of India, Swadeshi Jagaran Manch calls upon the public to boycott all Bangladeshi products & services," they said in a press statement.
